OVER 2,000 VISITORS ATTEND SHEEP SHOW

Thousands Visit Second Annual Sheep Breeders' Show and Handicraft Exhibition; Opened by Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture; Noted Visitors Present; Archie Rogers Wins Hand Sheep-Shearing Contest and Ties for First Place in Professional Shearing Competition; Sheep Herding Won by "Laddie," a Puppy Owned by A. McKenzie of Saturna Island; Huge Handicraft Displays; Children's Section; Indian Work; Weaving Competition.

The enormous crowd at the second annual exhibition of the Salt Spring Island Sheep Breeders' Association on Monday held at Ganges greeted the entire day's program with enthusiasm, for not only were the exhibits of handicrafts and sheep of a remarkably high standard, but the spectacular contests of sheep-shearing and sheep dog trials provided many a thrill for the spectators.

Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, paid his first visit to Salt Spring Island on this occasion when he formally opened the show. Expressing keen delight at being able to be present on this occasion, Dr. MacDonald congratulated those responsible for the show on the splendid result.

Dr. S. F. Tolmie in endorsing Dr. MacDonald's remarks also congratulated Gavin C. Mount and his workers on the excellence of the show. Others who spoke at the official opening were: Frank Partridge, president of the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Gavin C. Mount, president of the association, who also introduced W. T. Straith, president of the Senior Chamber of Commerce; J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture; Mrs. E. Simmonds, Victoria, who was judge of the handicraft section, and A. E. Johnson and W. Brookman, Victoria, judges of the dressed meats section of the exhibition.

Hand-clipping a sheep in about 7 minutes, Archie Rogers, a native of the island from the Cranberry Marsh district, carried off the day's honors in sheep-shearing. He captured the hand-shearing contest and tied for first place in the professional shearing competition against men from Abbotsford, Matsqui, Crofton and Salt Spring, thus collecting $12 for his afternoon's work.

The hand-shearing competition, though not quite so speedy as that by machine, proved by far the most interesting.

"Laddie," now the famous puppy who won in the sheep dog trials, made a dozen sheep do what he wanted and got them into a corral unaided. This noted dog is owned by A. McKenzie of Saturna Island who runs many sheep there. Four fine dogs entered, and their work, considering that they usually do their herding in the bush and are not annoyed by spectators was little short of miraculous. They went to one end of the football field and drove the sheep to the other end, keeping the stragglers in line.

Laddie did his best work with the stragglers. Once a sheep broke from the flock, Laddie showed his great speed and jumped at the sheep's head and soon turned it back.

In the interior of the large hall, Mrs. A. E. Simmonds of Victoria judged the handicraft sections, of which there were a large number, both for competition and exhibition. Among the latter was a splendid exhibit of work from the Pioneer Handicraft Company of Victoria, which was an educational display and included examples of sweaters, scarves, socks, tweed Angora cloth and wools and some beautiful bags, wool darned on canvas from a pattern brought by the late Queen Alexandra from Denmark to England.

Special praise was bestowed on the work in the children's section, which the judge declared to be of splendid quality and workmanship, and also on a collection of rugs for exhibition only. These were the work of Mrs. Alfred Ruckie of Beaver Point, South Salt Spring, and gained the general admiration of the crowd.

In the Indian work section there were a large number of beautiful sweaters and socks. The spun and carded wool exhibit was excellent.

A weaving competition held on the stage of the hall also drew many on-lookers.

Dainty teas and lunches were served to the large crowd of guests by members of the Ganges Women's Institute.

Over 2,000 people in the area that the "Review" covers, in round numbers divided as follows: Sidney, 1,000; districts on the Saanich Peninsula outside of Sidney, 6,000; Islands in the Gulf, 4,000. ## Madam Scott Here Again, Friday, 15th

Madam Scott, the well known psychic reader from Victoria, will pay a second visit to Sidney on Friday afternoon, June 15th, when she will be present at the Greene Lantern Tea Rooms, where she will read cups, free of charge, for all visitors to the tea rooms that day.

On her last visit Madam Scott was welcomed by a host of visitors and those in charge invite all interested to be present on the 15th.

FLOWER SHOW IS POSTPONED TO JUNE 13TH

The summer flower show announced last week to be held on Friday, June 8th, has been postponed until the Wednesday following, June 13th.

This is the second in a series of three shows to be held by the North and South Saanich Horticultural Society and judging from the response received at their spring show this second event should promise much in the way of excellent displays and competition. The show will be held in Wesley Hall between the hours of 2 to 8 p.m.

Practically every flower to be found in the garden at this time of year will have a class at this show and the committee in charge urges that all interested in furthering the beauties of flowers in our district do their utmost to make this second venture a huge success.

Schedules for the show may be obtained from several of the local stores in Sidney, including the Sidney Cash & Carry, Hollands' Meat Market, and the Sidney Trading Co. Entries will be absolutely free, so all you have to do is secure a list and see that your entries are made. There will also be a children's section, which will include a bowl of annuals and a bowl of perennials.

The committee in charge would like to suggest to all exhibitors that, flowers they think will be over by the time they get to the show, be kept in water in a cool, dark place until the show. This is understood keeps flowers in wonderful condition a considerable length of time.

Afternoon tea and strawberries and cream will be served during the afternoon for all those desiring same. Mrs. F. F. King and Mrs. J. Wilkinson will be in charge of this feature.

Exhibitors are reminded at this show and at the close of the third show in the fall, the exhibitor making the highest aggregate score in the three shows will be awarded a bronze medal of the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association.

SPECIAL "BOAT" SERVICE JUNE 10

What promises to be a very interesting service will be held next Sunday evening at Saint Paul's Church when particular thought will be given to the boys and girls of our community. It will take the place of the family service which had to be postponed a few weeks ago on account of the minister's sickness. Parents are asked to bring their family to church and enjoy some of the old popular hymns which will centre around the theme of the sea and boats. A number of boys will have their boat models for the use of the minister, who will build his talk to them on "Boats," their use and lessons. A cordial invitation is extended to all to make this a real family service.

Plans are being made to have some special musical numbers.

CANNING CO. STARTS WORK

SPORTS DAY AT GANGES DRAWS HUGE CROWD

Sunday's Fire Destroys Buildings on West Road

Fire of an unknown origin, which broke out on Sunday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock, completely destroyed the pump house and dairy of Mr. George Clark, West Road.

A passing motorist first noticed the smoke and notified Mr. Clark, who in turn sought the aid of the telephone, which quickly brought help from near-by neighbors with extinguishers and pails, but which was to no avail as the fire had gained too much of a hold before it had been noticed.

The buildings destroyed were immediately in front of the barn and fortunately the wind was blowing in the opposite direction or nothing could have saved the loss of the barn.

INSPECTION OF SCOTTISH ON SUNDAY, 10TH

An inspection of the 2nd Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment, will be held by Major-General Ashton, C.M.G., G.O.C., M.D. No. 11, at Nanaimo on Sunday afternoon, June 10th.

This battalion, of which the local unit of the Canadian Scottish Regiment forms a part, was first organized in September, 1930, when "A" Company was formed in Duncan. Shortly after this "D" Company (Saanich, Metehosin and Salt Spring), and "C" Company (Courtenay and Comox) were organized.

These companies have, in the past, been inspected separately, but upon the formation of "B" Company (Nanaimo) this year, the organization of the battalion was completed and the forthcoming inspection will be the first occasion upon which the four companies have been gathered together in one place.

The Canadian Scottish Regiment includes two active battalions, the 1st Battalion in Victoria, and the 2nd Battalion spread over Vancouver Island with headquarters at Nanaimo. Colonel D. B. Martyn, D.S.O., M.C., commands the regiment, Lt.-Colonel F. B. Stephenson, Victoria, the 1st Battalion, and Lt.-Colonel D. H. Sergeant, Nanaimo, the 2nd Battalion.

The local units form a part of "D" Company, 2nd Battalion, No. 13 Platoon at Salt Spring under 2nd/Lt. D. G. Crofton, and No. 14 Platoon at North Saanich under 2nd/Lt. W. R. Foster. Major Eric Henderson commands the company with Capt. J. S. Adam as second in command.

At the recent inter-regimental sports, "D" Company gave a good account of themselves. Cpl. Elliott of No. 13 Platoon winning both the 100 and 220 yards sprints, while the company tag-of-war team, under the coaching of Cpl. Sayers, No. 14 Platoon, won the regimental challenge cup, meeting the brass band of the 1st Battalion in the final.

GARDEN FETE

ATTRACTS MANY

Amid the lovely surroundings in the gardens of "Manor Farm," the home of Captain and Mrs. E. Livesey, East Road, members of the Evening Branch of Holy Trinity and Saint Andrew's Women's Auxiliary entertained a large gathering of friends on Saturday afternoon at their "Strawberry Fete." Ideal weather prevailed, the large crowd entering with zest into the entertainment provided.

Keen competition marked the various contest games, the prizes for these events going to:

Rev. T. M. Hughes in ladder golf with the lowest score of 14.

Miss Iris Goddard, in comic golf, with the lowest score of 27.

Colin Stewart, in "Aunt Sally," with the highest score of 80.

Dainty tea tables set on a vantage spot on the lawn were filled and refilled many times during the afternoon, where guests gathered to enjoy the delicious teas, ice cream and strawberry dishes provided.

A rushing business was carried on at the home-cooking stall where a variety of lovely cakes, pastries, breads, etc., were sold.

Those in charge report a most successful afternoon and would like to thank one and all who assisted in any way.
